

Consider the following questions when creating your mission statement:

Why do you want to write the book?

What is its deepest purpose?

What kind of impact do you want it to have on the world?

Your family? Your community?

Use your Mind Map and Core Values list to play with the arrangement of words and ideas.

"Don't tell me the moon is shining; show me the glint of light on broken glass."
Anton Chekhov